

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,
THE UNIVERSITY, LEEDS.

19th March, 1928.

Dear Mr. Saiyaidin,

Excuse my delay in writing. I have been very busy this last few weeks. I shall be very glad to help you to publish your thesis, although I do not possess any influence with publishers.

I should advise one of the following,

Macmillan and Co. Ltd. St. Martin's Street, London, W.C.
Blackie and Sons, Ltd. (Publishers), London,
University of London Press, Ltd. 17 Warwick Square, E.C.
Oxford University, Press, Amen Corner, London.

If you will write to these publishers sending a copy of your thesis you can support it by the accompanying letter. This, I think, is the best way. The publishers prefer to deal with the authors direct.

I am glad to hear from your compatriots that you are doing well in India. Thank you for your good wishes to myself and my wife. Kindly remember me to any old students you may meet.

Yours sincerely, W. P. W. Scepter
