Dear Saiziddin,

I am writing this in the rush of getting away — and returning examination papers, so please forgive the hasty scrawl. I am leaving for a short visit to Europe in a couple of days.

As soon as your letter about Miss Zaidi reached me, I took it up with the authorities here. Professor LINTON has already written to you to say Teachers College will be glad to accept her, and he has sent you various forms for her to fill in. So that looks as though it would be alright.

Congratulations on your new post. And I am at least as sorry as you are (perhaps a good deal more!) that you are not coming here yourself. America is in a queer state just now ---

With good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Laurin Zillman

P.S. I suppose there is no chance of securing a copy of the tributes to Jamaica and Z-Usama?
