

SOLICITOR GENERAL,
INDIA.

3. Hartley Rd
N. Delhi

Aug. 22. 58

My dear Saigidaun,

I ought to have acknowledged much earlier your kind thought in sending to me your translation 'Iqbali Mas'ud-i-Qantaba'. I was out of Delhi on work for some days & have wanted for a sufficiently continuous period of "no-work", so as to be able to read it with uninterrupted attention.

I envy those who can read it in the original. Then,

I am only an "Indian Healer" who can only see something of the rapture that I feel from your English rendering at second hand & without seeing the manuscript.

Thanks again for sending your effort. I am always interested in anything you write.

Yours

truly

C. D. Dabhi